THE MANIFESTO

> a degen scripture for the new aera

CULT OF PRINTR

PRINT // PRAY // PUMP

the new aera. proof of belief. degen doctrine of the trenches.

01 //

THE NEW AERA

the old game is dead. the trenches do not sleep. while the timid wait for permission, the bag workers print. this is the new aera – built on belief, shipped on conviction, paid in green candles.

we are not a token. we are a movement of degens who refuse to die slow. every tick is a confession. every chart is a verdict.

PROOF OF BELIEF

most chains run on proof of work or proof of stake. we run on proof of belief. the brigs that hold through the wick, the grinders that meme through the dip, the printrs that show up daily – they are the consensus.

- > hold through pain. paper hands write history in red.
- > ship through fud. the loudest doubt comes right before the breakout.
- > show up daily. presence is the only edge.

03 //

THE BAG WORKER CODE

a bag worker is not a holder. a holder hopes. a bag worker grinds. the bag is the job. the chart is the timecard. the trenches are the office.

RULE 01 you do not sell the bottom. you stack the bottom.

RULE 02 you do not chase the top. you trim the top.

RULE 03 you post. you raid. you meme. silence is a leak.

- RULE 04 you protect the brigs. no rugs from inside the cult.
- RULE 05 you remember every wick. fear is a map.

04 //

THE PRINTR BRIGS

brigs are the chosen few. not the loudest, not the richest – the most present. brigs hold the line when the chart bleeds. brigs raise the floor when the chart flies. you do not buy your way in. you grind your way in.

- > brig status is earned through the weekly grinder comp.
- > brigs vote on direction, raids, and council matters.
- > brigs print first. the floor follows.

THE CLOSING LEDGER

we print because the world prints. we pray because hope is a position. we pump because conviction has gravity.

if you are reading this, you are early. if you are still here next cycle, you were always meant to be a brig.
